

Leading With Integrity: Women's Opportunities and Challenges

Women face exciting leadership opportunities and challenges in today's world. This program is designed to increase women's skills, knowledge, and confidence in leading and managing in complex organizations. We will address questions such as: What are the valued attributes and behaviors of women leaders in the workplace? How do women define and find work and career success? How do managerial and professional women successfully balance their multiple responsibilities and commitments? How can women increase their overall leadership impact in organizations? How can women lead with integrity?

The goal of the program is to help women understand the leadership and managerial issues surrounding women in organizations, and to assist them in recognizing and enhancing their unique leadership skills and competencies. Interactive in nature, this program includes leadership assessment, group discussion, skill development, and networking.

TOPICS

- I. Understanding leadership and leadership styles
- II. Ways women lead
- III. Developing a compelling leadership vision
- IV. Building strategic alliances: networking and mentoring
- V. Leadership challenges facing women
- VI. Creating a life: Work-family balance
- VII. Gender and communications
- VIII. Using power with integrity
- IX. Overcoming barriers in organizations
- X. Leadership for the future: Constructing your career

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

This seminar is intended for women who see themselves as leaders. Leadership is not defined as a specific title or level in an organization.

